

Christine Mutena

Christine Mutena is a passionate advocate for rare diseases and disability in Kenya and globally. As the co-founder of Rare Disorders Kenya (RDK) and a member of the Policy Committee of Rare Diseases International (RDI), she amplifies the needs of the rare disease community through awareness and policy advocacy. A mother of two children with rare genetic conditions, she is dedicated to ensuring children with disabilities live full, independent lives with dignity.